Cohen's Lottery &amp; Exchange-Office.

"HOC SIGNO FORTUNA."

BALTIMORE, FRIDAY, JUNE 19th, 1818.

Medical College Lottery.

The 25th. drawing will take place on Tuesday, when the first drawn Number agreeably to the scheme, is entitled to One Thousand Dollars—The Lottery will then be half completed, and will commence to draw more rapidly the ensuing week—recollect that the 30th drawing is now very near at hand, and that the first drawn Number on that day, will be entitled to the CAPITAL PRIZE OF TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS—Gain of the wheels now upwards of $22,000! Tickets still at the low price of FIFTEEN DOLLARS.

MASONIC HALL
LOTTERY.

State of the wheels—2nd drawing over.

CAPITAL PRIZES UNDRAWN ARE
$25,000—$20,000—$10,000—2 of $5,000—8 of $1,000—17 of $500—70 of $100, besides Fifties, & Twenty-Fives.—Tickets still continue at Twenty Five Dollars.—Orders promptly attended to.

An unpleasant accident occurred to the President of the United States, at the Dismal Swamp Canal, about fifteen miles from Norfolk. In viewing the situation and progress of that useful work, the President had occasion to cross over the canal on a narrow bridge of loose logs one of which turned as he stepped on it and threw him into the canal. As there was but little water in the canal, he was quickly extricated, without suffering any other inconvenience than the injury which his cloaths sustained from the sand.

[Gaz.]

The frigate GUERRIERE, it appears, has undergone a thorough repair at Boston, and is prepared for a voyage to St Petersburg, whither she is to carry Mr. CAMPBELL, our minister to Russia, who is in this city at present, waiting only, it is believed, the President's return, to take his departure for Boston, where he is to embark.

The PRESIDENT is expected to return to the city within a day or two.—Nat. Int.

Moose-Island &amp;c.

Eastport, &c. (says the Boston Patriot) are immediately to be surrendered to the United States and this commonwealth. The gallant Gen. MILLER is ordered by the President to receive the surrender on the part of the United States; and Governor BROOKS will forthwith select an officer to accompany him, on the part of this State.

From the Auburn N. Y. Gazette of June 3.

Attempt at Mail Robbery.

The mail carrier from this place to Oswego informs us, that on Friday night, the 22d ult. between Oswego village and Oswego Falls, he was assaulted by a man who jumped from behind a tree, and attempted to seize the bridle of his horse: the horse being frightened, immediately sprang to the opposite side of the path, where another villian made a pass at him with a club—he then applied spurs to his horse, and succeeded in escaping from them. It is hoped that measures may be taken to bring them to justice. The condemnation to death of two of the mail robbers in Maryland, we should suppose would have some influence on the minds of those disposed to acquire money in this way.

BRUSSELS, April 22.

Many English Officers, who have for some time resided in this kingdom, have been recalled to England. They speak of dispositions, which cause a belief of a serious misunderstanding between Britain and the United States.

PARIS, April 19—A letter from Berlin, dated 2d inst. announces that Aix-la-Chapelle is the city at which the Allied Monarchs will meet and that the king of Prussia will repair thither immediately after his return from Moscow, in order to partake of the waters before the arrival of the other sovereigns.

April 20.—Several of the Parisian journals have intimated that the delivery of the remains of Kosiusco, at Soleure, to Prince Jablonowsky, has been refused, but the Gazette de Lausanne of the 14th inst. announces that these precious relics departed thence the 24th March accompanied by the Prince and M. Veltner, the intimate friend of the deceased. "The Emperor of Russia," continues the journal, "has named the city Cracow for the reception of this deposit; and this monarch himself has made a proposition to the Polish government for the erection of a monument to the manes of Kosciusco."

Advices from Italy mention that the princess of Wales is in bad health, and that she has sold her estate on the Lake Gomo.

Two of the vessels belonging to the expedition, which sailed for the North Pole on the 23d April, were compelled to return on the 25th with the loss of anchors. [London paper.]
